

We hope that you like our updated image which is introduced by a new rose logo.

Look carefully at the rose and you will see two subtle elements - a musical note embedded in the rose petals and a heart-shaped leaf on the stem. These elements, together with the traditional color red, underscore the love and compassion inherent in our mission of bringing hope, healing and joy through live music to our neighbors most in need.

If you would like to link to us on your website please visit our Link To Us page to download our new logo.